THE CONSTITUTION

LUKOMONA CHRIST EXCHANGE PROGRAM (LuCEP) FOUNDATION

Kindly note: This Constitution will be implemented in the future once the LuCEP Germany HQ has assessed and confirmed that the foundation is operating according to plan. We appreciate your patience and support in this process.

PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Lukomona Christ Exchange Program (LuCEP) Foundation, acknowledging the Lordship of Jesus Christ and the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20), do hereby establish this constitution to guide our mission, vision, structure, and operations in fulfilling our divine mandate. We are committed to spreading the Word of God, empowering Christian leaders, and serving communities across Germany, Europe, Africa, and beyond.

ARTICLE 1: NAME

The organization shall be known as Lukomona Christ Exchange Program (LuCEP) Foundation, hereinafter referred to as LuCEP.

ARTICLE 2: MISSION AND OBJECTIVES

2.1 Mission

To enhance the Word of God across Germany, Europe, and the Western world by equipping African Church leaders, Christians, and faith-based organizations with the necessary resources, training, and platforms to spread the Gospel effectively.

2.2 Objectives

1. To facilitate cross-cultural faith exchange between African and Germany-European churches, and other western countries.
2. To promote evangelism and Christian discipleship.
3. To train and empower African church leaders for effective ministry.
4. To establish Christian support structures for African immigrants in Germany and Europe.
5. To support Christian social programs for vulnerable groups, including refugees and the underprivileged.
6. To publish faith-based materials to guide and strengthen Christian leadership.
7. To collaborate with other Christian organizations for joint missionary efforts.

ARTICLE 3: CORE VALUES
